Children's Group Classes

ACTING

A01: "Reader's Theater" with Erica Sirdashney, MTC Stage Director
Wednesday, 4 to 5 PM (Grades: 4-6)

During this class, performers participate in one-on-one fluency activities; small-group plays based on reading levels, and receive take-home materials / activities for those looking to improve reading levels. This class is ideal for older students who are struggling readers or any performers who are looking to improve their craft. At the end of the session, parents are invited in to see a favorite performance. Parents also leave with a folder, tracking the child's progress, and materials for continued progress at home.

A02: "In Character" with Erica Sirdashney, MTC Stage Director
Wednesday, 5 to 6 PM (Grades: 1 to 6)

During this class, performers are exposed to several different scenes from several different musicals / plays. "In Character" really dives into comprehension. The class is ideal for children looking to bring their performances to the next level. Rather than simply reading lines, performers learn to truly embody their characters. The class is especially ideal for those who have been cast in similar roles and are looking to expand their repertoire / explore others. At the end of the session, parents are invited in to see several performances of favorite scenes / new characters we have explored.

A03: "Reader's Theater" with Erica Sirdashney, MTC Stage Director
Wednesday, 6 to 7 PM (Grades: 1-3)

During this class, performers participate in one-on-one fluency activities; small-group plays based on reading levels, and receive take-home materials / activities for those looking to improve reading levels. This class is ideal for younger students who are struggling readers or any performers who are looking to improve their craft. At the end of the session, parents are invited in to see a favorite performance. Parents also leave with a folder, tracking the child's progress, and materials for continued progress at home.

A04: "Advanced Young Actor" with Mark Morgan, MTC's Producing Artistic Director
Saturday, 10 to 11 AM (Approximate Ages: 13 and up)

This Advanced class starts with improvisations and moves into work on scenes. Actors will discover how to use their experiences and imagination to create a character in a musical or play. In an atmosphere of creativity and self-discovery, students will come to understand and experience the level of preparation and discipline you will need to move forward to the next level in theater. We'll also work on how to prepare for auditions and cold readings.

A05: "Beginner Young Actor" with Mark Morgan, MTC's Producing Artistic Director
Saturday, 11 AM to 12 PM (Approximate Ages: 5 to 10)

This Beginner class allows your young actor to enjoy the feeling of trying something new and making new friends. Students will be introduced to theatrical concepts including character development, play production, and performance by exploring various theater games, improvisation skits, and scene work from children's musicals in this fun and exciting class.

A06: "Intermediate Young Actor" with Mark Morgan, MTC's Producing Artistic Director
Saturday, 12 to 1 PM (Approximate Ages: 10 to 12)

This Intermediate class allows young actors to explore all the magic and mysteries in an actor's tool box during this skills and techniques class. Students will develop their acting skills by working on core elements of theater: improvisation, ensemble-making, vocalization, movement, and creativity. Students will discover what makes a good actor great. This class is a complete theater experience that includes warm-up theater games and acting exercises, with an emphasis on building collaborative and communication skills.

D01 (Same as D05): "Parent & Me" with Julia McHale, MTC Dance Teacher / Choreographer Tuesday, 11 AM to 12 PM

Come and spend some quality time with your child in the most fun and educational way! This class is specifically designed for children 18 to 36 months old and gives children and parents an opportunity to bond through dance, song, stories, and creative movement. Children will receive an introduction to dance with stretching exercises, imagination, and creative play with the use of sensory props improving gross motor skills. During the instruction, you will strengthen the physical relationship you have with your child, have interactions with others, and create happy memories together. You will be able to encourage your child's interests, and you may even discover a new skill of your own!

D02: "Jazz / Musical Theater - Level 5" with Jody Haggerty, MTC Director of Dance Wednesday, 3:30 to 4:30 PM (Approximate Ages: 13 & Up)

This Jazz / Musical Theater Dance class will focus on advanced dance technique and the various dance styles used in Broadway shows. Classes will be based on Broadway style jazz technique and a proper warm-up and stretches to improve a dancer's range of motion, enhance muscle flexibility, increase their level of core muscle strength, and increase their awareness of their own body's potential as it connects to expression through movement. Combinations will become increasingly more complex and intricate and will focus on expanding coordination, retention, rhythm, showmanship, and musicality. We will also focus on learning performance skills such as connecting with the audience and telling a story through dance and facial expressions. Students will be introduced to the concept of Lyrical and Contemporary, which are forms of dance that emphasize interpretation of music lyrics to tell a story with movement that can be fluid or abstract and combines techniques and skills from ballet and jazz. This class is ideal for the advanced dancer with approximately three to four years of previous jazz / musical theater and ballet training. Enrollment in this level is upon approval of Miss Jody.

D03: "Tap - Level 5" with Jody Haggerty, MTC Director of Dance Wednesday, 4:30 to 5:30 PM (Approximate Ages: 13 & Up)

For the more experienced tap dancer, the basics will be put together to develop rhythm, style, and sound. Curriculum will become increasingly more complex and intricate, and basics will be reviewed and drilled for technique. Exercises and combinations will focus on expanding sound clarity, coordination, terminology, retention, showmanship, and musicality, while maintaining proper tap technique and appropriate speed. The students will learn combinations from a variety of tap styles from Broadway to Rhythm tap using various types of music. Improvisation will be introduced to challenge the dancers. Dancers should have approximately two to three years of previous tap training. Enrollment in this level is upon approval of Miss Jody.

D04: "Ballet - Levels 2 & 3" with Jody Haggerty, MTC Director of Dance Wednesday, 5:30 to 6:30 PM (Approximate Ages: 10 & Up)
